

Bulk data field descriptions

Field	Description
OBJECTID	Unique identifier for open data portal
HealthFacilityIDNumber	Unique identification number for the facility
FacilityCategory	Type of facility based on use. "Restaurant" includes bars, coffee shops, prepared food departments inside grocery and convenient stores. "Grocery" includes traditional grocery stores, convenient stores, grab-and-go sections within hotels, and stores selling only pre-packaged items. "Institution" includes schools, short-term care facilities, child and adult care facilities. One business may have multiple facilities under the same roof. For example, a larger grocery store will often have a "restaurant", a "meat market", and a "grocery" facility.
BusinessName	Name of the business
RiskLevel	Categorization of facilities depending upon food preparation methods. This risk level determines how often the facility is inspected and is not determined through previous performance on inspections. Risk 1 facilities are typically full-service restaurants. Risk 2 facilities are restaurants that do not prepare large amounts of food in advance. Risk 3 facilities are very limited in their handling of food, often serving pre-packaged items.
